As a perfect fusion of tradition and innovation, it is among the most sought-after destinations among travelers. Be it the Senso-ji Temple in Asakusa or the majestic view from the Tokyo Skytree, the contrasting beauty of is breathtaking. And then there's the Shibuya Crossing, a high-energy spectacle we saw in Fast and Furious Tokyo Drift. And if you want to spend some moments of serenity, the beautiful gardens of the Imperial Palace or the Meiji Shrine are the perfect spots for you. Art lovers should visit the Ghibli Museum, the National Museum of Art, and watch a Kabuki to spend a day in the world of splendid creativity.

The Delectable Side of Tokyo

All food lovers across the globe love to explore the heavenly world of Japanese cuisine. Don't forget to visit the Tsukiji Outer Market, where you can find the best sushi ever. If you are looking for some good liquor to go with your food or company, Sake, Shochu, Umeshu, and many other options are there for you to try. Oh, and don't forget to try some really good Kaiseki meal or a Michelin-starred ramen when in Tokyo.

The Fashionable Tokyo

It has made a mark in the global fashion industry by presenting some of the most refined Haute Couture. Visit Ginza to explore the high-end fashion, or Harajuku to discover unique street styles.
